The Southside Art League is proud to announce its next Member Artist Show from February 3rd to February 28th. Local Indy artist Samantha Wright will be exhibiting her ethereal paintings and sculptures that are for sale.

Samantha Wright has been creating art since she could hold a brush. She loves to paint abstract subject matter and create her own unique world. She has lived in Greenwood, Indiana all her life, but wishes to move somewhere where it's always warm when she graduates from college. Samantha is currently in her Junior year at Herron School of Art and Design and is majoring in Integrative Studio Practice with a minor in Art History.

Samantha's inspirations for her art come from nature and from artists like Tara Donovan, Lydia Burris, Salvador Dali, and Vincent Van Gogh. She does not often enjoy painting subjects directly from life. She usually starts off with what first comes to mind, and then paints away until the ideas start flowing.
