About the Sponsors

Mallow Run Winery, located in Bargersville, In., was founded in 2005 and operates on a seventh-generation 600-acre family farm. The tasting room is located in the hayloft of a nineteenth-century timber-frame barn built circa 1870. It features hand-hewn beams, connecting visitors to the artisans of the past. Eight varieties of grapes, including Indiana's own Traminette, grow in the vineyards producing 10,000 cases of wine a year. Visit us at MallowRun.com.

The Greater Greenwood Arts Council was founded in 2009 and is volunteer-led. Its mission is to advance and promote the visual, performing and literary arts in Greater Greenwood Community. Learn more at GreenwoodArts.org.
